Dear General Cabell:

I am sorry to learn from your letter of June 13 that you will be unable to attend the 1958 Triennial Inspection of the NACA Ames Aeronautical Laboratory.

Since receiving your letter we have registered Messrs. [REDACTED] for attendance at the inspection on July 14.

We shall be glad, however, to accommodate three representatives of the Central Intelligence Agency at the inspection next month as you requested. Invitations, hotel reservation cards and acceptance forms are enclosed for these gentlemen so that they may arrange for their attendance at the inspection:

Sincerely yours,

Smith J. DeFrance,
Director
